Job Title

Director of Liturgical Music

Location

Parish, Terre Haute, In., St. Patrick & St. Margaret Mary

Job Description

The Director of Liturgical Music Ministries (DLM) is responsible for the effective preparation, coordination, performance, and leadership of music within the liturgical celebrations at St. Patrick and St. Margaret Mary parishes of Terre Haute, Indiana. This person of faith is both a pastoral minister who possesses a vision of how a local Church can develop its potential and a professional who holds specialized credentials in music and has a thorough understanding of Roman Catholic liturgy.

The DLM is a full-time, 12 month, exempt position.

Job Qualifications

Must hold a Bachelor's Degree in Music (Level 1) and at least three years' experience as a pastoral musician preferred, along with a strong knowledge in Roman Catholic Liturgy. Proficiency on keyboard (organ, piano), in voice, choral performance, and some knowledge of guitar and other instruments is a requirement.

Skills, Knowledge, and/or Abilities

Pastoral, Musical, Liturgical, and Organizational Skills as outlined in the Qualifications for the Director of Music Ministries Policy Statement (National Association of Pastoral Musicians, Director of Music Ministries Division)
