Job Title

Director of Religious Education

Location

Parish, Terre Haute, In., St. Patrick & St. Margaret Mary

Job Description

The Director of Religious Education (DRE) serves the parishes of St. Margaret Mary and St. Patrick, Terre Haute, Indiana by articulating the vision of religious education and addressing the four-fold task of catechesis: proclaim the message, build-up the community, motivate to serve, and lead to worship and prayer. The Director of Religious Education is responsible to create, design, maintain, and evaluate all areas of religious education directly or indirectly.

The DRE is a full-time, 12 month, exempt position and will be required to work some weekends, along with occasional travel to Deanery Parishes.

Job Qualifications

Must hold a Master's degree in Theology, Religious Education, Pastoral Ministry, Religious Studies or Education with a major focus in Theology or Religious Studies; or Master's degree in Education, with a minimum of 12 additional graduate hours in Theology, Religious Studies, or Religious Education. Three years' experience as a catechist and experience in administering one area of religious education required or a practicum in religious education administration as part of Master's Program.

It is also imperative that the Director of Religious Education is an active and practicing Catholic and has the potential talent to be an effective religious educator as evidenced by the Selection Research, Inc., Perceiver Interview for DRE.
