Diocese of Springfield in Illinois' Facebook Comment Policy

The purpose of this Facebook page is to provide an interactive forum where readers can gather and discuss information about the wide range of issues addressed by the work and mission of the Diocese of Springfield in Illinois (Diocese).

Followers are encouraged to post questions, comments and concerns, but should remember this is a moderated online discussion hosted by the Diocese.

Diocese appreciates healthy, constructive debate and discussion; that means we ask that comments be kept civil in tone and reflects the charity and respect that marks Christian discourse.

Comments will not be removed simply because they express opinions in disagreement with the Diocese. However, comments that may be deleted include those that contain:

- Vulgar language
- Personal attacks/inflammatory remarks against a person or group
- Content/comments off topic
- Spam
- Links to sites that contain offensive material or attack the bishops and their mission
- Promotion of services, products, political organizations/agendas
- Information that is factually incorrect

Diocese reserves the right to remove posters who violate this policy.

Comments left by others on this page do not reflect the views of the Diocese.
