CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT

E. Pope Francis stated: “Accompanying on its own is not enough. It is not enough to offer someone a sandwich unless it is accompanied by the possibility of learning how to stand on one’s own two feet. Charity that leaves the poor person as he is, is not sufficient. True mercy, the mercy God gives to us and teaches us, demands justice, it demands that the poor find the way to be poor no longer. It asks — and it asks us, the Church, us, the City of Rome, it asks the institutions — to ensure that no one ever again stand in need of a soup-kitchen, of makeshift-lodgings, of a service of legal assistance in order to have his legitimate right recognized to live and to work, to be fully a person.”

What is Pope Francis saying? How are you responding to this challenge in your own life?

F. Describe any instances through which you have been exposed to poverty in the United States first-hand, either as part of your own life or in your experiences with others. How did such experiences help shape your perspective about poverty in the United States?

G. What else do you feel we should know about you?

H. Income

CCHD has a particular interest in helping low-income Catholics to participate in a practical learning experience that ordinarily would be out of their reach due to financial limitations. Please use the 2017 federal poverty guidelines at <https://aspe.hhs.gov/poverty-guidelines> to answer the following questions. CCHD defines as “low-income” families who earn up to twice the federal poverty level. For example, using this formula:

- A family of four that earns under $49,200 annually would be considered low-income.
- A self-supporting individual with no dependents who earns under $24,120 annually would be considered low-income.

CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT

1. Can someone else claim you as a Dependent on his or her federal income tax return?

___ No

b. If no, are you “low-income”?
