Liturgy is the first school of the Church. We learn by praying; we learn by doing. In our faithfully praying the Church's Liturgy Sunday after Sunday, we strengthen our belief. In our faithful praying week by week, we strengthen the gift of faith we have from God and deepen the relationship we have with God in Christ.

This short list offers suggestions for ongoing Faith Formation that is so essential to the Christian life. Within, individuals and small and large groups may find a follow-up for "Why Catholic?" or a next step for Whole Community Catechesis / Generations of Faith, Small Christian Communities, the New Evangelization of the Catholic Church, and other faith sharing groups as we embark on the Year of Faith.

Consists of four short chapters on Sunday Mass; in English and Spanish. Each chapter is 4-pages with exposition of topic, 2-3 reflection questions, summary, and [Other] 2-3 quotes from Church teaching supporting the topic and questions.

1. Where do I meet Christ? At the Sunday Mass!
2. Where do I hear Christ speak? At the Sunday Mass!
3. Where do I receive and become Christ? At the Sunday Mass!
4. Where do I witness to Christ? At the Sunday Mass!

Part of the series Worship Works: Practical Guides for Liturgy. Although many in series are for specific liturgical ministers, the following have broader appeal for the assembly and also helpful:

- Rev. Ron Raab, CSC, Real World, Real Worship, WLP code 001703;
- Mary Beth Kunde-Anderson; Jerry Galipeau; Bruce Croteau; Leia Anslinger, Perspectives on Participation/Perspectivas sobre la Participación, WLP code 001704;
- Rev. Lucien Deiss, CSSp, When Christians Pray the Psalms, WLP code 017281;
- Delores Dufner, OSB, James Field, Michael Balash, Virgil C. Funk, John Thomas Lane, SSS, Christ Present in the Work of the Liturgy, WLP code 017283.

Link: <http://www.wlp.jspaluch.com/12950.htm>

Contains 52 half-page articles of bite-size information on the Mass; begins with four introductory articles; then treats the Mass rite-by-rite from beginning to end.

Use as bulletin shorts for positive ongoing formation on why we say what we say and do what we do during Mass.

Catechists can use as tool to help teaching; also as handout. Trainers for liturgical ministry can use as supports and reminders of why ministers and assembly act the way they do. Preachers and liturgists can use for liturgical contexts and catechesis.

Other: bilingual; CD for unlimited reprints and web posting.

Inspired by the principle that one learns how to be a Christian by doing what Christians do, Apprenticed to Christ provides catechists with ideas and resources for the “apprenticeship” of catechumens, candidates, and others participating in parish religious formation.

Brief introduction makes the case for apprenticeship and catechesis for conversion. Page 8 provides “A Catechetical Method: Mystagogical Catechesis in the Session for Christian Formation” that is worth the price of the book.

This hands-on method, the Church's preferred approach for the catechumenate, is presented in a systematic, easy-to-use format based on the Liturgy of the Word for Sunday Mass, with activities suggested for each Sunday of the three-year cycle of Lectionary for Mass readings.

Other: connections to the Sunday readings; recommended links with the teaching of the Catholic Church; apprenticeship activity; short list of catechetical resources.

On liturgical formation and liturgical catechesis on Mass and the Eucharist. See and use the companion, Forming the Assembly to Celebrate Sacraments, by the same author. Great questions.

The Second Vatican Council envisioned a Church whose people could understand and participate fully in the liturgy. The author gives us a tool for catechizing our communities.

This concise, lively book gives information: answers questions that parish councils, liturgy boards, liturgical ministers, adult formation groups and individuals in the assembly have about what the official rites call for and how we can celebrate them well. It provides an opportunity for group reflection and discussion – primary activities in adult formation. It will enable parishioners to integrate new learning with faith insights and thus become more aware and discerning participants in the Mass.

A practical guide to each part of the Mass, offering historical development, theological reflection, relevant documents, and discussion questions.

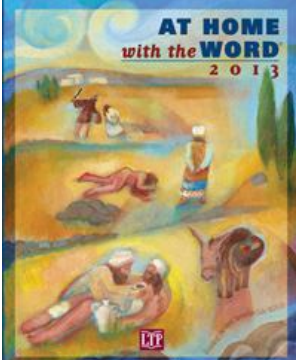

This book first appeared as a resource for the 1981-1982 national study of the Mass, coordinated by the FDLC at the request of the Bishops' Committee on the Liturgy. Newly revised in light of the publication of the of the Roman Missal, Third Edition, this workbook guides the reader or study group through each part of the Mass in great detail by outlining the historical development, quoting in full the relevant official documents, providing theological reflection, and presenting discussion questions. Written in clear non-technical language.

Publicado primero como un libro de acompañamiento al estudio nacional sobre la Misa que se condujo durante los años 1981-1982, mismo que organizó la Federación de Comisiones Litúrgicas Diocesanas (FLDC) a nombre de la Conferencia Episcopal.

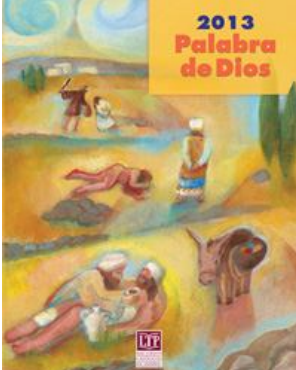

Ahora, la edición de 2005 hace uso de la nueva Instrucción General para el Uso del Misal Romano, Tercera edición típica y de Normas para la Celebración y Recepción de la Sagrada Comunión bajo dos Especies en Las Diócesis de Los Estados Unidos de América, así como la Introducción al Leccionario para la Misa. Presentamos un recurso ideal para los comités litúrgicos parroquiales, para la catequesis acerca de la Misa, y por su puesto, para su uso en el proceso de la Iniciación Cristiana.

A new, personal prayer periodical. Deeply rooted in the Catholic tradition, Give Us This Day is about prayer – praying daily, praying well, praying with confidence. It supports your desire to establish prayer as a part of your life, enhancing your existing practices, and deepening your encounter with God by providing:

- A practical approach to daily prayer;
- Prayers and readings for daily Mass;
- Texts for the Order of Mass;
- Daily prayer, Morning and Evening;
- A reflection on the Scriptures for each day;
- A saint for each day of the week;
- Art and music and brief articles.

Other: experienced small groups could use for Sunday and/or daily preparation of Mass texts and the short articles for faith-sharing and discussion.

On the liturgical formation and liturgical catechesis for these Sacraments: Baptism, Confirmation, Penance, Anointing, Holy Orders, and Marriage. See and use the companion, Forming the Assembly to Celebrate the Mass for Eucharist. Great questions.

The Second Vatican Council envisioned a liturgical assembly that could understand and participate fully in the liturgy. Lawrence Mick offers insights and suggestions for helping our communities understand the work they are called to do when celebrating the sacraments.

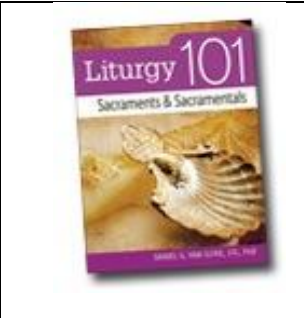

Once leaders are prepared, the book can then be used for catechizing the whole assembly, parish councils, liturgy boards, liturgical ministers, adult formation groups, and individuals.

Covers all seven Sacraments; puts these core experiences into their historical and theological context, and illuminates the ways the sacraments bring us together as God's people. They are activities that require preparation to bring us to the fullness of our life in community and in Christ.

The first chapter covers worship, liturgy, and rite. There is a chapter on each of the seven Sacraments. Covers the history, ministers, how is ministered, and how it should affect the individual receiving the Sacrament. Discussion questions follow.

This is an easy read and very understandable. Small group discussions will encourage the individual to go back and think about the Sacraments received and the impact they have had on life. Questions could also be used for personal journaling.

Other: sources used and suggestions for further reading at end of each chapter.

These sessions are ideal for RCIA inquiry and for parish adult faith formation in general. If used in the Period of the Catechumenate, care must be taken to honor the agenda and method given in RCIA, no. 75 – use the given readings and prayers of the Sunday.

Based on solid principles of adult learning, these sessions focus on the core elements of our faith: God the Creator, Jesus Christ, the Holy Spirit, the Creed, the Blessed Trinity, as well as sessions on forgiveness and human suffering. All sessions are reproducible from the included CD-ROM which contains handouts, discussion/reflections questions, and other materials.

This book has 18 chapters divided between four parts corresponding to the four pillars of our faith:
 Part One – The Creed: Holding On To Faith

Part Two – The Sacraments: Expressing Faith

Part Three – The Moral Life: Living Faith

Part Four – Prayer: Praying Faith

Excellent resource for individual and group use. Every chapter helps the reader understand faith in terms that are easy to relate to everyday life. Even without using the Leader’s Guide, small groups can easily engage in conversation. Construction analogies are used for the building of faith.

Because of the 2008 publication date, page 27 uses the old translation of the Nicene Creed and page 101 uses the old translation of the Confiteor. Easily remedied with inserts.

This book contains 7 chapters or stations covering: proclaiming, anointing, praying, blessing, serving, washing, and believing. Very easy to read and understand. Each of the chapters has a prayer service for praying a particular station which could be used as part of a parish meeting, class, or other small group. This is liturgical catechesis at its best: celebrate well first, and then reflect in a mystagogical style after.

- ◆ The logo is composed of a square, bordered field on which a boat, symbolizing the Church, is represented as sailing on a graphically minimal representation of waves. The main mast of the boat is a cross from which sails are displayed in the form of dynamic signs which compose the trigram of Christ (IHS). The background to the sails is a sun which, associated with the trigram, refers also to the Eucharist.
